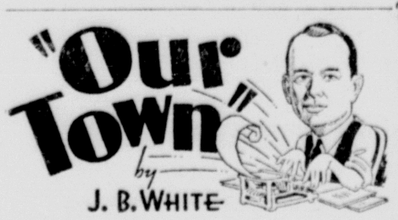
LEGION'S ANNIVERSARY FRIDAY

Shirley Temple Here Sun. & Mon.



Fly-by-night newspapers, which are established principally for political purposes and with a view to taking legal advertising from legitimate publications, were given a rap by Chief Justice Anderson of the Alabama Supreme Court in a recent decision.

A notice of foreclosure of a mortgage on three buildings in Birmingham was inserted in an obscure suburban newspaper. On the day of the sale no bidders appeared except the mortgagee, who bid in the property at a low price. The mortgagor, a woman, testified she had never seen the newspaper in which the notice appeared, and it was shown to the satisfaction of the judge that it was "a mere mushroom paper with very limited circulation."

The sale was held invalid, and the mortgagee was assessed the cost of the suit. The judge's opinion said, in part:

"While it is not imperative that the mortgagee should choose the paper which will in fact give the utmost publicity to the notice, yet he must act in good faith . . . and it will be ground for vacating the sale if he caused the notice to be printed in an obscure newspaper of very small circulation . . . This is especially applicable where the mortgagee becomes the purchaser at the sale."

Blind persons engage successfully in many occupations, but there is an unusual manufacturing establishment in Chicago in which all the operatives are blind, and employed in weaving beautiful rugs of intricate patterns.

Their pay is on a piecework basis and they earn from $15 to $45 a week, according to their skill. The force includes both men and women, and when operating at full capacity about 25 are employed.

The factory was started 12 years ago by a former electrical engineer, who became interested in blind workers while installing machinery in the craft schools of the Chicago Lighthouse Association. The enterprise has been successful, in spite of unfavorable business conditions. Most of the rugs are sold by house to house canvass, principally in the East.

This unique factory is purely a private commercial enterprise, not connected with any charitable institution, the workers being self-supporting married and having comfortable homes.

By their skill, industry and pride in their work these blind rug weavers set a splendid example for those who have the blessing of sight.

Recently a typical country doctor's buggy was added to the collection of ancient vehicles owned by the Smithsonian Institute in Washington. It is one used for 32 years by Dr. Alexander Hamilton Bayly of Cambridge, Md., and presented to the museum by a decendant, Mrs. H. C. Orem.

In the Smithsonian's carrage collection is the last one used officially by an occupant of the White House, a relic of President Theodore Roosevelt's administration. President Taft was the first to buy an automobile for officials use, but the Roosevelt carriage was kept at the executive mansion for several years, and was

Shirley Temple, the screen's greatest attraction in Cameron, brings to theatre patrons Sunday and Monday, March 20 and 21 her latest release in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

The great play, once immortalized by Janet Gaynor, now finds another expression to capture the hearts of the American people. It is Shirley who brings this old story again in one of the real heart thobs of the year.

Mr. Swift said he had retained extra ushers for the picture, especially for night performances. Children will have special care also at the matinee hours on Sunday and Monday.

You'd never know the old farm now—it's a streamlined Radio Center, with Shirely Temple on a happiness hook-up in the title role of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," her best-of-all musical. The first star of the screen is supported by her starriest cast, sunniest songs, swingiest dances and a hey-hey load of laughter in this new 20th Century-Fox musicomedy hit opening Sunday at the Cameron Theatre.

When radio appears down by the old mill stream it raises a bumper crop of song and fun, with Randolph Scott and Gloria Stuart united in

CITIZENS FILE NAMES TWO TRUSTEES TODAY

Early Thursday morning a committee of citizens requested news papers to publish the announcement that D. T. E. Crump and F. S. Lesovsky, members of the Cameron School Board had been drafted to offer again for re-election.

Both men are now members of the board and their terms expire with the election to be held on Saturday, April 2nd. The school board has called an election to be held on that date at which time two are to be elected to serve for two years.

Dr. Crump and Mr. Lesovsky both consented to run again after citizens had requested they submit their names for the ballot. Both express their deep appreciation for this manifestation of good will and appreciation for their services.

During their terms on the board, friends pointed out, the schools have made great progress, notably the construction of the gymnasium and physical education building and additions to the Colored schools. At present the school has under construction cement drive ways at Yoe High.

Perhaps the most important part of the record was the building of a surplus fund and the application of better business methods in the management of the school system. Both men have served well and know every detail of the work so necessary to a successful administration. Cameron schools have become larger and more important and citizens who filed the names of Mr. Lesovsky and Dr. Crump feel they are responsible, along with other members for this good condition.

trail herd went up North of 36, so well told in the story by Emerson Hough. The people of Milam county will remember that the boss of that herd was old Jim Nabours who later lived in Lincoln County, New Mexico during the cattle war in which Pat Garrett, famous Sheriff and Billy The Kid, figured so prominently.

Although Mr. Smith, was not old enough to have gone up the trail with Jim Nabours and his great Del Sol herd, he came along as a boy after the stirring period of Texas' cattle history, but was old enough to have seen a great deal of colorful life as a cow boy.

Like other boys of his day, he learned the saddle, worked on the Lockhart Ranch and ranged over many a romantic trail. The family moved from Gonzales to Lockhart and there Gene Smith grew to young manhood. He rode cattle ranges, farmed and had the normal life of the then Texas youth.

Early in life he was thrown upon his own resources. How he took care of himself in the country that gave Texas her greatest traditions of the cattle trail, is a story all its own and as absorbing and interesting in detail as many of the great heroes of the books. Some day the story may be written.

In late years he moved to Bell county, entered business and served alternately in the position of peace officer and his own business. Some years ago he moved to Cameron and entered business. He has so advanced himself in the esteem and regard of his town people that they have turned down a number of good men to keep Gene in the office he now holds and in which he has served efficiently and well.

A man friendly by nature, understanding and appreciating people as a whole, he has made many fast friends. They point out that perhaps no other man so nearly merits the esteem and confidence of the masses of people as Gene Smith. They look upon him as an officer to be depended upon, a friend who never turns back, and so about him has been built up many true and tried traditions of a neighbor and friend who serves his fellows.

Mr. Smith wants to be Sheriff of Milam County. His entry into the race is not dictated alone by the wide solicitation that has come to him. He is asking for the place as well and wants the people to vote for him.

Long years of experience qualify him for hte place. He knows how to handle every problem confronting a peace officer. It is unnecessary to say that Gene Smith is fearless, that he regards his duty under any and all circumstances as the first consideration of any man who asks for this important place. People who have lived with and observed him, know that he has served all the people; that no time or circumstance has ever halted his response to call and in times of emergency Gene has always figured in the picture, mainly because the people have found in him a man of great strength and courage.

Few men have offered for the office of Sheriff with better qaulifications and more experience. These factors combined with his great natural ability and courage, his many friends believe, make him the ideal candidate.

One of his proud possessions, although he is modest about it, is a Carnegia Hero Medal given him by the Foundation several years ago when he tied a rope around his body and lowered himself to the bottom of a well filled with caison gas and brought two men to the surface. This feat of courage cost him permanent injury. The men were digging a well near Rogers. While others stood by in terror, Smith went into action. That was and is typical of Gene. He gets the job done and will make the people that kind of sheriff.

Mr. Smith asks his friends to aid him over the county and he pledges himself to serve to the limit of his ability and experience.

National President of Federated Church Women, Miss Daisy June Trout, addressed a representative group of Milam County Women last Wednesday afternoon in the Episcopal Church.

Miss Trout outlined the phases of work undertaken by the National Council and the many local branches throughout the country. Matters relative to Welfare Legislation, Race and International Relations, Christian Citizenship, Marriage and The Home, are topics in which Church women are vitally interested and for which they put forth consecrated work.

Miss Trout urged attendance of Milam County Women at their local meetings as well as at the State Council in Waco, March 15-17.

Women of the Episcopal Church invited members of the local Board to meet Miss Trout in the Rectory before her departure from Cameron.

Legion

organization of the American Legion was completed. So established the American Legion immediately began a mighty bulwark against the destructive elements which sought to inject poison into the American minds affected by the post-war period of reaction. In several countries which had been in the World War, returned men seized control of the government, striking down their countrymen who attempted to resist them. As the cables brought news of these internal disorders into our land, many sound citizens feared what the American veterans, back from training to conquer and kill, might do. They wondered if the khaki clad defenders would join with the ugly elements who had been disloyal and who thought it was an opportune time to overthrow our republic. The Legions answer was swift and assured. We let our countrymen and the entire world know that we fought for America because we loved her, that we still love her and will continue doing so as long as we live.

In twenty years of our organization we have proved that our wartime devotion was no passing fancy. We realize that law and order must be maintained. We realize that the pure Americanism may be made, the greater America will be. As a whole the great program of the American Legion is a program of Americanism. No part of it is limited to obtaining benefits for Legionnaires. All of the program of the Legion is directed toward the common good of the entire body of the American citizens.

In 1917 and 1918, we went out to fight and need be, to die for America. A blessed Providence spared us and returned us to our homes and we are determined to live for America. No better way to cover the principles of the American Legion than by their Preamble, "For God and Country. We associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America, to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the great war; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safe guard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

IT'S HOME TOWN SERVICE

THE best thing about your telephone service is that it's home town service—tailor-made for you at the switchboard by people who live and work here.

Experts can develop better methods of giving you service. Scientists and engineers can contribute new inventions and developments. Western Electric can buy and manufacture economically for the operating companies of the Bell System.

And all of these things can—and do—help tremendously at the job of giving you good telephone service at a fair cost.

Yet not one of them could replace the qualities of friendliness and neighborliness which grow out of the fact that the men and women who operate the telephones here belong to and are part of this community.

It was an appeal for community co-operation Dr. Taylor, humorist and educator, brought a message that had its uproarous sides as well as the serious appeal. The New Deal came in for a few thrusts. Dr. Taylor said Cameron's banquet was a credit to cities of many thousands in population.

Every American worthy of the name wants peace, and hopes it may be maintained without a sacrifice of national honor. It would seem, then, that one of the best means to that end would be the avoidance of unnecessarily irritating other nations. Therefore, the current agitation for a boycott of Japanese goods appears to be closely akin to playing with fire.

Such a boycott would serve only to provoke great resentment in Japan, and would not in the slightest change her course. It would be a futile act of irritating without restraining. It would further sow the seeds of hate and possibly lead us into war.

As Major George Filed'ng Elliot, former military intelligence officer, recently wrote: "Embargo and boycott are tantamount to blockade. And blockade means war and will be countered by war." It would be ghastly irony if the well-meaning activities of some peace societies should really hasten war, instead of preventing it.

From an economic standpoint, it might well be remembered that Japan is our third best customer among all the nations, and buys far more from us than we do from her, taking vast qauntities of our cotton and oil, which so desperately need expanded foreign markets just now.

The foregoing is in no sense a defense of the methods employed by Japan in certain phases of her campaign in China. But a boycott would be a feeble gesture of disapproval at most, and would bring a retaliatory boycott, of American commodities, continuing long after the present war in China has passed into history. Let us not play with fire.

The annual recurrence of Washington's Birthday on February 22 is always the inspiration of many editorials and articles on the "father of his country." Occasionally some mention is made of Martha Washington, his devoted wife, but her personality is not as well known as it deserves to be.

Mrs. Washington was the daughter of Col. Dandridge, a planter of New Kent county, Virginia, and was the widow of Daniel Parke Custis at the time of her marriage to Washington on January 6, 1759, being the mother of four children by her first husband.

Two of her children died in infancy the others being Martha Parke Custis and Col. John Parke Custis, whose grand daughter became the wife of General Robert E. Lee, famed Confederate leader.

Mrs. Washington was short and plump, with hazel eyes and dark hair, her stature being in marked contrast with that of General Washington, who was six feet two inches in height.

She inherited considerable wealth from her first husband and this added to General Washington's fortune made them one of the wealthiest couples in America at the time, their estate being valued at more than $5,000,000.

George and Martha Washington had no children. Their married life extended over a period of more than 40 years, during which in peace and war, as well as in the exacting duties of a President's wife, she was his faithful companion and helpmate.

As such she is held in affectionate rememberance by the nation.

To Mothers of America

Do you love your boy? If so, let's try to help them.

Mothers of America, I feel that we do not have one minute to lose. We see and hear of war approcahing. No, we do not want our loved ones to go over seas and be butchered and murdered. We pray for it not to be, but faith without work is dead, work without faith is dead so lets have both.

Let's not wait until war is declared and our boys are called out, then wring our hands and cry and wish we had tryed to do something. We owe it to our boys. We brought them into this world and it is our duty to help them in every way we can. Oh, you may say we can't do anything, but yes we can, by the help of God.

If we, the Mothers of America, will go down on our knees and spend much time there, by God's help, things can be changed. Oh, I am calling to the Mothers of America, let us go back to God and try to save our nation from ruin. Talk to every one about it. Dear Mothers, I feel an impression from God. We had better work and work fast. Pray to God to save our boys soul and keep them from war. I do not believe it is right to force our boys to go over seas and be slaughtered and murdered by the thousands.

Women, get together in your many organizations, especially your church. Write to your Congressman, ask him to do all he can to keep our boys from going over seas to fight. Write your President too, asking him not to let our boys go to war.

Oh, Women, Mothers, wake up and don't put this off. Do something right now. If the women of America will work and pray together things will be changed, by the help of God and we will have a better world to live in. The Bible says there will be wars and rumors of wars and we are having them. Please act quickly if you love your boy. I am a full-blooded American mother, I love my God, my country and its people.

reason of his large acquaintance and friendships among the people he has been able to achieve great progress by finding and using ready co-operation among all the districts and the schools.

The traditions of the school system in Milam county are sacred to the Newton family. The late Rev. J. K. P. Newton, father of Guy T. Newton, was at one time superintendent of public education in the county. His son now follows in the footsteps of a great pioneer who wrought well for the old frontiers to make a better civilization for coming generations of boys and girls.

Before entering the office of County Superintendent, Mr. Newton was Principal of the Cameron schools. Prior to that time he had served his full time as a teacher in rural and high schools. His equipment is of the kind to get results in supervising a system of education. In all parts of the county progress has been in the making since he became superintendent. His office has been the clearing house for information, instruction co-operation and advancement. Upon the occasion of his announcement for re-election, Mr. Newton was happy to give credit to his employes for their part in the success of the work. He has maintained high standards of office efficiency by obtaining the best assistants possible.

As a teacher in the public schools, Mr. Newton found a way to express his interest in boys and girls. He has among them friends by the thousands. His popularity has not been approached by any other man in recent years. Friends say that he approaches an all time high record in personal influence among the peole and has obtained maximum cooperation, thus enabling him to make a major contribution to the progress of the system and the county.

As a citizen Mr. Newton takes rank among those who sacrifice well for the advancement of the community. A world war veteran, he is a member of the Edwin Hardy Post, American Legion. He draws from a patriotic family a high conception of public duty and his life has found an ideal expression in the work the people called him to do.

Early in life he laid the foundation for his education. He grew up on a farm at Maysfield and there had the normal life of the hard working farm boy. As he advanced in age he knew that beyond the fence line of his father's farm was a world of high destiny. In him was the ambition and strength of character to mould opportunity and so like thousands of boys who venture forth, he early went to school. That he succeeded well is shown by his achievements. The lessons he learned in the stimulation of youthful struggle on the old plantation, he has kept with him, and so today he is rightfully proud of the heritage of his youth.

Few men have offered for public office possessing better equipment, more personal charm or co-operative and helpful spirit than Milam county's superintendent of public education. He is deeply grateful for the privilege of serving. When he accepted the responsibility, he pledged the people he would make his service pay heavily in dividends for a better and more efficient school system.

Mr. Newton was deeply appreciative of the co-operation that has come from the districts, their Trustees and patrons. To each one he sends his best wishes and earnestly hopes he has earned the favor of the people for re-nomination and re-election to the office.

The high spot of the week's campaign was reached on Friday night in Sharpe when the school building was jammed for the talk. M. V. Holman, teacher of vocational agriculture in the school there, was in charge of the meeting. He also conducted a hearing on the new cotton bill.

Mr. Alexander said Thursday that the Sharp community is one of the best producting sectons of the county. The plant at Cameron is receiving milk at the rate of more than 3,000,000 pounds a year at the present time.

Sinx Songs

To the roster of romancing stars, dancing stars, comedy stars and singing stars are added six sunny new song, hits, in addition to a medley of Shirley's famous hits of the past which she sings again. The new songs are "An Old Straw Hat," by Gordon and Revel; "Alone With You" "Happy Ending" and "Crackly Grain Flakes," by Pollack and Mitchell; "Come and Get Your Happiness," by Pokrass and Yellen; and "Toy Trumpet," with music by Raymond Scott and lyrics by Pollack and Mitchell.

It is to be a week of big time films. On Tuesday and Wednesday Lily Pons and Jack Oakie are in a rip roaring comedy and musical, "Hitting a New High."

William Powell, a favorite here, is teamed with Annabella in "Baroness and the Butler" on Thursday and Friday, March 24 and 25.

Saturday at the Cameron "High Flyers" is a jam up program. The preview is also a smashing film "Blonds at Work."

ORDER OF ELECTION

At the Board Meeting of the trustees of the Cameron Independent School District, March 10, an election for selecting two trustees to fill the expiring terms of Dr. T. E. Crump and Mr. Frank Lesovsky was ordered to be held at the City Hall (Old State Bank) on the date of April 2.

Mr. Albert Matula was appointed judge of the election and Mr. E. A. Perrin, Secretary of the Board, was directed to have the ballots printed and to make all other necessary arrangements for this election.

Those who wish to file on the ballot should file with the secretary of the Board, Mr. E. A. Perrin.

GOHMERT'S STORE CELEBRATES

15 YEARS OF PROGRESS NOTED IN SALE OPENING MARCH 19

Louis F. Gohmert, owner of the Gohmert Variety Store in Cameron, will celebrate his 15th Anniversary in business here with a stupendous sale opening Saturday morning, March 19th.

The store has had the spotlight of preparation for more than a month, getting ready for the greatest sale in the 15 years it has been a part of Cameron's better business life. Large stocks from all the markets, decorations, displays, all merge into the central scheme of a genuine celebration of a success that is unique in the annals of local merchandising history.

Importers and manufacturers, jobbers and fellow merchants are joining in a spirit of co-operation with Mr. Gohmert. They congratulate him on the success he has attained and what his store has accomplished as a factor in the community.

Today's issue of The Herald carries a message of importance to buyers in all sections of the territory. In addition Mr. Gohmert mails out a colorful advertising circular announcing the 9c Sale and anniversary celebration.

Mr. Gohmert's policy in this sale is to give values. There will be no souvenirs or gift merchandise, but lowered prices on new goods and many lines to come under the bargain sweep that is the spirit of this celebration. The doors will open promptly at 8 o'clock.

The sale will run for one week, opening on Saturday, March 19th, it will close on the following Saturday, March 26th, giving Mr. Gohmert and his employes six days in which to say "Thank You" for the patronage that has made the store a success.

Mr. Gohmert has been buying heavily for months, preparing for this sale. It is going to be one of the Major events of recent years along commercial row. It is a fine personal tribute to Mr. Gohmert who is one of the leading citizens and merchants of Cameron.

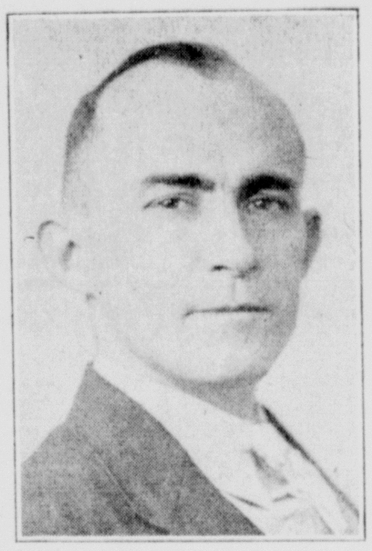
When Albert Alsup of Cumberland, Me., returned to his parked car he found a police ticket for illegal parking on it. He tossed the ticket into the gutter, and as a result had to pay a $10 fine for littering the streets plus a $1 parking fine.

An impressive scholastic record is that of Bondo Hansen of Herman, Neb., who was president, secretary and tresurer of his high school graduating class. It was also conceded that he was the most popular member, the handsomest, and the one most likely to succeed. In other words, he was the only member in his class.

The business address of M. H. Bidwell of Kansas City, Mo., is: "M. H. Bidwell, Cattle Branding Alley, 200 West End Under the Hog House."

Celebrates 15 Years Business Progress

Celebrates



LOUIS F. GOHMERT

Fifteen years ago he entered business in Cameron. On Saturday, March 19th, he begins a six day sale to celebrate the store anniversary.

Fifteen years ago in the spring of 1923 a new business opened in Cameron.

A young man, native born Texan, only a short time removed from his experience in the world war, was launching out on his own. That young man was Louis F. Gohmert of Cuero. He turned down a banking career to enter the merchandising field.

On Saturday morning, March 19th, his store in Cameron will open in celebration of Fifteen Years in business. On the eve of the celebration sale Mr. Gohmert said he had no regrets for having decided upon his course in business. His 15 years have brought him a lot of hard work but the thrill of growth and success seemed very much worthwhile as he prepared to celebrate.

The Gohmert Store in Cameron is a personal tribute to the energy and foresight of Louis F. Gohmert. Into its development he has consistently put his best efforts, his talents and business skill.

For nine years he operated his store in an adjoining building. In 1929 he purchased the building he now occupies, remodeled and refinished it. It is one of the model stores of the Southwest and its bright, cheery atmosphere will greet the people when it is opened on Saturday for the celebration.

Mr. Gohmert was born and reared in Cuero. His father was an early settler and business man. Louis was a soldier in the world war and is a member of the local post American Legion and its Treasurer. He is a director in the Chamber of Commerce and has been active as civic worker, supporting all worthy movements for the benefit of Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Gohmert have two children, Miss Dorothy Gohmert student in the University of Texas, and Louis Gohmert, Jr., now in high school in Cameron.

The Anniversary celebration beginning Saturday will be a happy occasion for Mr. Gohmert and for the employes of his store. The measure of success that has come to him is well deserved. From all sides he is being congratulated on his 15 years of business progress in Cameron.

The Gohmert Store in Cameron

Here is shown the new Gohmert Store. For the next seven days beginning Saturday morning, March 19th, at 8 o'clock the store owner and employes will be hosts to the people in celebrating the 15th year of progress.

GOHMERT EMPLOYES JOIN WITH GREETINGS TO PATRONS HERE

Sharing with Louis F. Gohmert the congratulations of friends and business neighbors on the occasion of the celebration of the 15th Anniversary, are the employes of the Gohmert store.

These employes were anticipating the added pleasure of greeting the people on the opening day of the 7 day sale, Saturday morning, March 19th.

One among the number is indeed a pioneer. She is Miss Clara Matula and has been with the store for 14 years. Miss Matula is a valued employe and has contributed much to the success of the store and her many friends over the trade territory will be happy to congratulate her on this occasion.

Miss Mary Richter has been with the Gohmert Store for three years. She has many friends who will be glad to know of the sale for they will have occasion to congratulate her as well as Mr. Gohmert and the store for the success of the business to which Miss Richter has contributed much.

Miss Agnes Hebner, another of the regular employes, will share with the store and its owner the congratulations now due for the 15 years of progress. Miss Hebner has been with the store for the past two years and has played a good part in the progress of the business and will be happy to greet her friends.

GOHMERT THANKS THE PEOPLE

"Your patronage for the past fifteen years is so much appreciated by us, we could not allow this opportunity to slip away from us, and not personally thank you for the business we have enjoyed from you.

"The business you have given us, together with the business we have enjoyed from our host of good friends, has made it possible for us to give work to a large number of men and women, throughout the years, and they too, join in extending their appreciation for the patronage you have entrusted to our keeping for the past fifteen years.

"Borrowing that slogan from a well known noonday classification club, "He profits most who serves best" seems quite fitting and appropriate at this time, for we have endeavored throughout these many years to render to you a service that has proved, we hope, most profitable to you.

"Someone has said, "Competition is the life of trade." Maybe so, but co-operation plays just as important a part in the life of business as does competition. You have seen fit to co-operate with us, by giving us a goodly portion of your business for the past fifteen years. We regret exceedingly that our hand is not long enough that we might reach out into your homes this very morning, and shake your hand, look you in the face, and thank you personally for your business.

"Extending you and yours an invitation to visit our store during our ANNIVERSARY AND 9c SALE.

Sincerely,
L. F. GOHMERT.

Mother's Day

In less than two months we will observe Mother's Day. Our hearts swell in gratitude for all that mother means to each one of us. Not only will we honor mother on May 8th but we will complete the raising of the money necessary to begin the construction of our new Educational Building. Many will want to make special offerings in honor of Mothers who have worked and worshipped in this church through the years. Our Building Committee is now contacting the members of our church in an effort to secure additional pledges for our Building Fund to be paid by Mother's Day. Let us all in the spirit of consercation make sacrifical efforts to provide this greatly needed building for the glory of God and the advancement of his cause.—Baptist Messenger.

Hazards of Kite Flying Told In Earnings By Power Company Here

With spring breezes and sunshiny days at hand, youngsters thoughts are turning to kite flying, and power and light company officials today issued an appeal to parents to warn children regarding precautions which should be taken in the pursuit of this popular pastime. Each year brings many serious accidents became of carelessness in flying kites in the vicinity of electric power line.

In order to avoid accidents in this community, these five precautions are suggested, which, if observed, will minimize the hazards of kite flying:

(1) Don't fly kites in the vicinity of electric power lines.

(2) Don't climb a pole or use a stick in order to dislodge a kite or string entangled in power wires.

(3) Don't fly kites with metal strings.

(4) Don't fly kites with wet strings.

(5) Don't pick up a wire which might have fallen to the ground.

The local power and light company representatives expressed their desire to co-operate to keep down accidents. If kites become entangled in electric power lines a company employe will be glad to help in retrieving it. But the best rule possible is to not fly kites near power lines.

Drastic Cut In Cotton Is Seen

Drastic reduction in cotton acreage in Milam county was forecast here today in a statement by George Banzhaf, county agent who said that indications are that the cotton farmers of the county would be allowed only 30 per cent of their cultivated lands in cotton.

At the same time Mr. Banzhaf made it plain that this figure was indefinite and if farmers use the percentage as a guide they do so at their own risk.

The reduction depends on what the farmers in the south do on Saturday March 12 when they vote on the compulsory marketing quotas of the new farm bill. Two thirds will be required to place the law into effect.

The percentage allowed, if correct, means that a farmer who owns and cultivates 100 acres of land may plant only 30 acres in cotton. Fear was expressed here that business as well as farmers would see a sharp drop in purchasing power and sales, since cotton is the major money crop of the county.

At the same time Mr. Banzhaf released the statement he said that no quota can be alloted until all farms have been covered by a work sheet. Farmers who do not furnish the work sheet may have an allotment based on sheets prepared by the office of the agent, it was said. Time was an important factor. If cotton is to be planted quotas are needed.

THE MOST AMAZING QUARTER-CENTURY IN TEXAS HISTORY

DURING the past quarter-century Texas has witnessed an amazing development of her vast resources and opportunities. Population has almost doubled. The volume of agricultural products has increased substantially. Mineral and oil products have increased in annual value from about $25,000,000 in 1912 to almost $600,000,000 in 1937. New wealth, added by manufacturing processes, has called for new payrolls, and has helped materially to bring the annual spendable income of Texans to the impressive total of more than two and three-quarter billions of dollars.

A Vital Stimulant to Progress

Dependable electric power service has been a vital stimulant to balanced development. In 1912, the Texas Power & Light Company was organized; and, in 1913, it built and put into operation the first high tension power transmission line in Texas. Thus began the pioneering of a service which has expanded to meet the needs of a greater Texas. Had it not been for the consistent expansion of this service during the past quarter-century, vast sources of new wealth might still be lying dormant as they had lain prior to the coming of this dependable, low-cost power service—abundant for all purposes.

To Those Who Had No Service

During this dynamic quarter-century the Texas Power & Light Company extended its service to 512 Texas communities of which 380 had not previously had electric service. Today, more than 40,000 rural and farm homes are served by this Company. Of the 512 communities, 478 have population of less than 2,500. Yet, Texas Power & Light Company brings to the people of this area a service which is not excelled even in the most densely populated areas of the nation, at an average cost to its customers lower than in many large eastern cities.

A Vigorous Community Asset

Texas Power & Light Company service is, however, more . . . far more . . . than the mere delivery of electric energy. It brings many vigorous aids to help round out the whole program of Better Living in the communities in which it operates. Its engineers and technical men advise and work with commercial and industrial establishments, helping them gain full advantage of their opportunities. It renders engineering service, planning service, technical service, specialized advisory service with respect to all uses of electricity in the home, in business, in industry, on the farm, and to the municipality.

Providing Cheaper Electricity

Today, the customers of Texas Power & Light Company enjoy a service which is not excelled anywhere . . . In any community, regardless of size or location. Lighting, cooking, refrigeration, sewing, cleaning, laundering, and many, many other services relieve drudgery and bring health, comfort, and convenience to the home. Yet, the cost of all these services is one of the smallest items in the family budget. In every other use, too, this service brings a value which greatly overshadows its cost. During the past ten years the cost of Texas Power & Light Service has gone down, and only down, despite rapidly changing and frequently rising costs of other items in the budget.

Truly, An Amazing Period

Yes, the past quarter-century has been an amazing one in the history of Texas. It is only an indication of the vast developments which lie immediately ahead. Tomorrow is filled with opportunities . . . Texas Opportunities . . . opportunities for great industrial achievements . . . for commercial and agricultural progress only hinted at in the past. The Texas Power & Light Company rededicates its intensely localized services to those communities in which it puts its shoulder to the wheel, with other citizens, to shape and build Better Living for all.

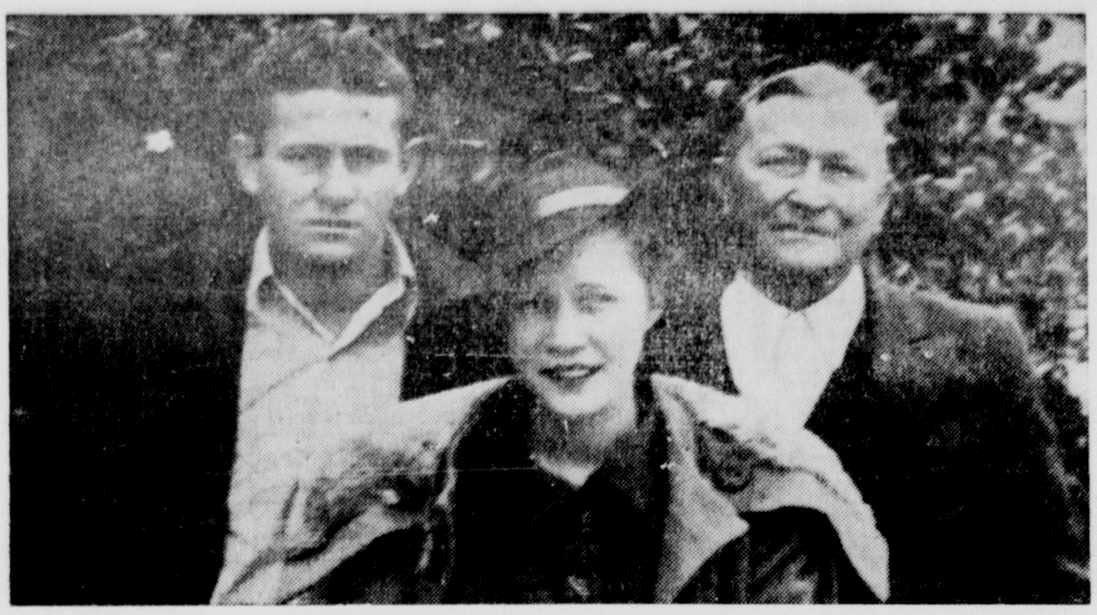
Heads Texas Tennants' Parade to Ownership



Clarence Clark of Van Zandt County stepped into head place this week in the procession of Texas tenant farmers who will move into land ownership under the new Bankhead-Jones Act. Clark was the first Texan tentatively approved for a land purchase loan and the second in the United States. When the land title is approved, he will get a check for $6,003 to buy and improve 141 acres. The dwelling house will be reconstructed under private contract from several inadaquate dwellings now upon the proverty.

No down payment is required under these loans, but purchasers are selected from the "cream of the tenant" by a local committee of dirt farmers in each of the 23 counties in which the program is now effective. Clark owns several young work animals and sets of plow tools. His family grow most of their food at home, putting up 500 can of fruit and vegetables last year, and keeping 2 cows, sixty hens and several hogs.

Kennedy

ment that he did not feel he should make any statement for the purpose of obtaining support by pointing to his record. "It was my plain duty to do these things and feel I am not due any special credit for them. Of course it is kind of people to compliment us over here for the work done, but I feel the people had a right to expect that in advance and it was but the natural and customary thing for me to do my full duty."

Born and reared in this county, Mr. Kennedy had the advantage of a wide general acquaintance before he began his service in the office of the Sheriff. He has made many friends who appreciate the work he has done. Friends point out that he has been the sheriff for all the people, has conducted the affairs of the office in accordance with the best traditions of men who have served in this high place. In doing so he has grown imeasurably in the estimate of the people he serves. Mr. Kennedy's warm, friendly nature and ready smile, have become an institution already in the county capitol. His office is always open house for friends and the people as a whole. He has enjoyed the work and hopes that he has been able to show his appreciation by merit alone.

The duties of sheriff are many. They often are very difficult. The man who performs them well is perhaps notable. One of the best comments on the administration of Mr. Kennedy came not long ago from friends who had come across a bit of unusual service he gave. He had tracked down and brought to justice some cow thieves. It was by no means the first time his detective ability had served him well. On this occasion Mr. Kennedy had devoted more than the usual time and hard work to the job. The livestock involved was hardly worth the effort, but the law had bene violated. Cattlemen, said the Sheriff, have been losing too many stock and the theft of cattle and livestock in the county must stop. So Max Kennedy took up the trail. Thieving now is an exception to the rule, a rare occurence and no one wishes any more ardently that it has ended for all time, than the Milam County Sheriff.

In announcing for public office records are always to the foreground. It must be said in behalf of Mr. Kennedy that although he has a good one, he does not urge or discuss it. His friends urge it for him and they appreciate as well as do the people at large appreciate, the signal service he has rendered in every department of his office.

Coming to the office only a brief period back, Mr. Kennedy promised the people that he would do his best. It was also urged that he would experience the normal period of getting on to the details and finding the best methods for service. Friends point out that he has achieved much and in so doing has hit an all time high in getting along with people, serving them to become a friendly, accommodating sheriff who believes that as the hired hand for the people he should at all times do his best to please them.

He has maintained efficient and courageous deputies and office assistants. His own courage has been tested many times in the exacting duties of sheriff. Mr. Kennedy is happy over the thought that his administration has been without serious incident, that friends and a friendly people without strife, make for a better county in which to live.

Mr. Kennedy wants the people to support him. He pledges them that he will ever be found faithful to the trust and hopes to continue to merit the confidence of all the people.

FARM CLUB NEWS

Mrs. J. A. McKinney,
Jones Prairie Home Dem. Club,
Cameron, Texas, Rt. 2:

"Running water in and out of the kitchen is the first and most important step toward kitchen improvement but easily kept walls, wood work and floors are important too." Miss Dorothy Parter, Home Demonstration Agent, told the Jones Prairie Club at the home of Mrs. A. H. Patske, March 8th.

Spring is here with all of its freshness and beauty and seems to make the dingy walls, wood work and floor of our gitchen cry out for a beauty treatment. When we consider this treatment we find ourselves confronted my many problems such as limited means or the lack of physical strength with which to do the work. Miss Porter came to our rescue with many helpful suggestions She displayed pictures of kitchens, sample of wall paper, paints, varnish and oil, some of which can be bought very cheaply. She further emphasized that since 70 per cent of the country woman's time is spent in the kitchen that she should exercise great care in the selection of a color scheme since some colors seem to have a bad influence on our disposition.

Those attending the meeting were: Mesdames A. H. Patske, E. B. Yager, O. O. Ashley, T. B. Stidham, S. S. Hickman, T. F. Cloud, A. L. Burnett, J. A. McKinney and Miss Ethel McKinney. Two new members Mrs. Julius Carothers and Miss Lois Lucas, one visitor Mrs. E. F. Johnson.

Mrs. Newt Canady will be hostess to the next meeting, March 22nd. The subject for discussion is "Teaching Our Children to Cook."

The University Dames entertained at the Driskill hotel Thursday with their annual luncheon for which Mrs. Leo Wilkerson served as general chairman of arrangements and Mrs. Jennie V. Moyers as toastmaster. The decorations featured a theme of spring with the bluebird symbol alike of spring and of happiness, dominating the arrangement. A central mound of blue corn-flowers with yellow acacia was surrounded by bluebird blue candles grouped by twos. Yellow candles alternated the length of the "T" shaped table with branches of wild plum in full blossom, each surmounted by a blue bird. Blue birds served as place cards and other details of the affair featured the combination of blue and gold. Mrs. L. J. Martin and Norman C. Smith and Mrs. J. R. Coltharp, serving with Mrs. Leo Wilkerson as chairman were the committee on decorations. Mrs. John Olson, president of the Dames, made the invocation after which Mrs. M. Jones gave a history of "The Aims of the Dames." Mrs. Wilkerson and daughter, Miss Zora Wilkerson played "Country Dance" by Ethelbert Nevin as a piano duet which was followed by a reading "The Inventor's Wife" by Mrs. Henry Hardin. Mrs. Wilkerson and daughters, Zora and Leola, played a piano trio, "Secrets" by L. Gardier before Mrs. J. D. Claybrook, guest speaker was introduced to speak on "Trends of Modern Literature." Patsy Gunter pupil of Janet Collett, was accompanied by her brother, Ramsdell Gunter, in an original dance number. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Gunter. FARM CLUB NEWS

Mrs. J. W. Chrisner,
West Milam Home Dem. Club,
Rogers, Texas, Rt. 2:

"A clean cool kitchen takes the drudgery out of 75 per cent of the rural house keeper's work," stated Miss Dorothy Porter, when she discussed "Kitchen Backgrounds," at a meeting of the West Milam Home Demonstration Club held with Mrs. Jack Rae, March 3rd.

The most pleasing effects are secured by light tones at the top with the darker tones in the lower part of the room. The big spaces are to be treated in neutral shades while the small spaces give brightness. Contrasting curtains break the monotony of any color scheme. During the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Sam Rae, plans were made for the community party that was held Friday night March 4 at the Sandy Ridge School. The club voted to co-operate with the Texas Home Demonstration Association by being 100 per cent in the contributions to the State Educational Funds.

The hostess served a party plate to those pdesent. Special guests were: Mrs. Vince Ward and Mrs. Fisher Ward and Miss Ruth Gibson of Rogers, Miss Sarah and Jewel Vickers and Miss Laannah Ward.

At the next meeting to be held with Mrs. J. J. Ward on Wednesday March 16, an interesting program will be given by the club on "Teaching Our Children to Cook." Visitors and new members are given a special invitation to be present.

Mrs. Beuna Chambers,
Bryant Station Home Dem. Club,
Rogers, Texas:

"If 70 per cent of a farm woman's working hours are spent in the kitchen, shouldn't she do her utmost to make that the most attractive and easy to keep room in the house?" was the pertinent question asked by Miss Dorothy Porter of the Bryant Station Club which met with Mrs. G. R. Blackstock, kitchen demonstrator, on Thursday March 10.

"Walls may be covered with builders papers for as little as $1 and old wood floors and woodwork may be finished with 3 coats of hot linseed oil and waxed with home made wax another dollar or less. The oil should be applied very hot to the wood which has been thoroughly cleaned and allowed to dry, left on for about 30 minutes and all excess oil removed with soft cloths. Repeat daily or every 2 days then wax. This makes a finish which preserves the wood, does not absorb grease, water, or stains, looks very well and is easily cleaned," Miss Porter said.

During the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Beuna Chambers, acting chairman, the club voted to contribute to the education fund 100 per cent.

Following the meeting the hostess assisted by Miss Nellie Blackstock and Mrs. Bartow McAnulty served refreshments of coffee and cake to 13 members and one visitor, Mrs. Vernell York. Plate favors were boutonieres of tiny pansies.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. W. Mann, Thursday March 24. The lesson will be "Teaching our Children to Cook." Everyone is invited.

At his death Gus Gainey, colored, of Dunn, N. C., left to relatives a car he bought in 1917, drove until the first five gallons of gasoline gave out, and then parked permanently because he figured the upkeep and accident risk were too great.

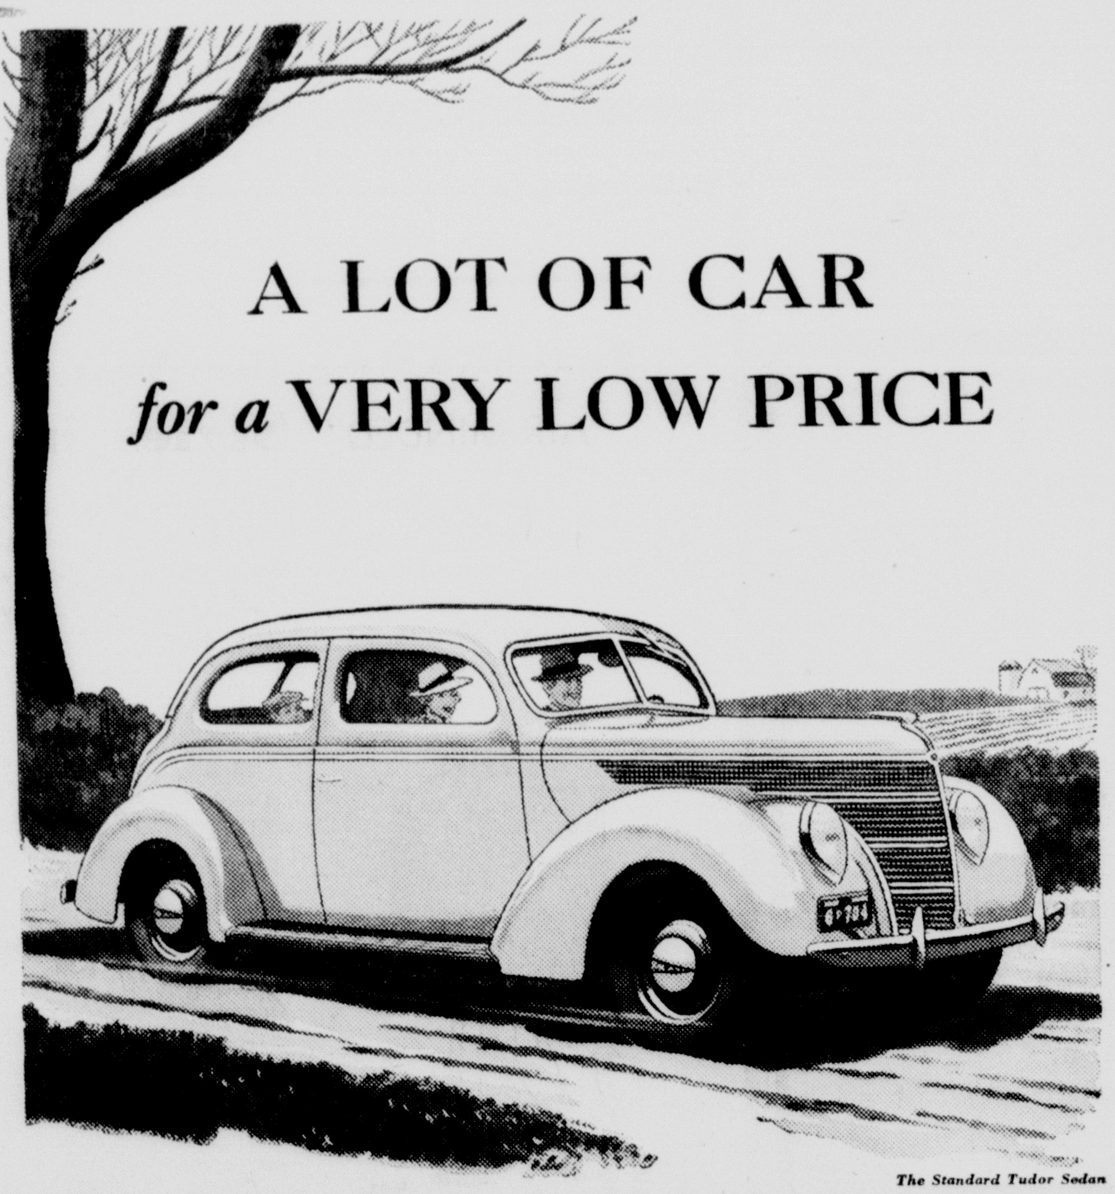
A LOT OF CAR
for a VERY LOW PRICE



The Standard Tudor Sedan

The Ford effort to make your dollars buy a constantly better car is well illustrated in the Standard Ford V-8.

It has all the basic Ford advantages. It is built on the same chassis as the De Luxe Ford V-8. It gives you a choice of smooth 85-horsepower or 60-horsepower V-8 engines. But it sells at low prices, and includes bumpers, spare tire, cigar lighter, twin horns and other equipment that make it a still bigger bargain.

With the thrifty 60-horsepower engine, the Standard Ford V-8 is priced especially low and gives the greatest gas mileage in Ford history. Hundreds of owners report averages of 22 to 27 miles a gallon — or even more.

Your pocketbook will approve of the Standard Ford in every way. And so will you when you drive it!

Makes Report

JOHN R. HAYS

President of the Chamber of Commerce from March 8, 1937, to March 8, 1938, Mr. Hays has brought to the office a rich contribution of co-operative effort and his administration has witnessed progress in all departments of the organization. Traditions of service have found in him a helpful and beneficial expression.—From Chamber Commerce Book.

Hays Speaks of Progress in Making Annual Report for Chamber of Commerce

In his farewell address, J. R. Hays, retiring president of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night, looked to the future for a broad program of constructive work and left for the succeeding president and officials a record of progress for Cameron.

His annual report was printed in book form and placed at each of the more than 350 plates served in the gymnasium banquet hall. Mr. Hays spoke of three events in his reign that are to be hade annual. They are the Community Christmas Tree, the Chamber of Commerce barbecue and the Poultry Show.

Mr. Hays said that a survey is under way to determine the value and extent of poultry and produce raising in the county and that the industry is rapidly becoming a major source of income. Expansion of the dairy program came under his 1937 administration. The Kraft-Phenix Cheese Company factory here is now receiving milk at the rate of two million pounds a year and the supply is increasing.

"The privilege of submitting this report for the fiscal year and the work of the Chamber of Commerce for 1937, is a pleasure for which I am deeply grateful. It was my good fortune for the period of this report to enjoy the co-operation of men who have given unselfishly of their time and energy for the betterment of their City and County. The spirit of enterprise and intelligent application of zeal for progress enables me to say that the year has been successful.

"To the Directors, Officers, Committee Chairmen, Committeemen and the Membership I wish to express my sincere appreciation. I am not unmindful of the many who have contributed to the sum total of our achievements for the year and to each one I tender my sincere gratitude.

"The Chamber of Commerce as a civic organization is the power to shape our industrial destiny. Its accomplishments have abundantly justified the support given by our citizenship for the amount of capital invested in the annual budget I feel certain that no other organization can approach its contribution to the sum total of our welfare. I have every good reason to believe that the organization will continue to merit your co-operation and support and lead our City to better and brighter days.

"To those who shall succeed us we pledge our wholehearted co-operation.

"The Press of our City and neighboring cities has been indispensible and I wish to thank on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce the newspapers and their publishers for their fine co-operation.

"In conclusion I wish to acknowledge the loyalty of our entire citizenship and to applaud their example of response to every cause sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce."

High Attendance Day

Our B. T. U. has maintained a constant high attendance record for several weeks. We want to see this high record not only maintained but surpassed. Dr. T. G. Gardner, our State B. T. U. Secretary, has designated April 3rd as High Attendance Day for the B. T. U. in Texas. Our Director, Woodrow Lowe, has set 200 as our attendance goal for that day. Let us not wait until the Sunday before to talk about this goal. Let every leader and sponsor or officer in each one of our Unions begin making plans now for this high attendance goal in April 3rd.—Baptist Messenger.

Is Re-Elected

W. F. PADEN

Paden Re-Elected Secretary-Manager Chamber Commerce

Your Secretary and Manager, Mr. Paden brought to the Chamber of Commerce a wide executive experience and in the modern development of its service has made a major contribution. The Chamber of Commerce has realized far reaching benefits from its investment in a full time Secretary and Manager.

In his position Mr. Paden has demonstrated the wisdom of maintaining an executive officer whose duties touch every phase of the work undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce. His service has been indispensible to the success of the organization and the helpful contribution he has made to the work has brought to the Chamber of Commerce signal recognition throughout Texas. His co-operation and close application to duty are responsible in a large measure for the record made in the essential service that makes the Chamber of Commerce today our greatest factor for progress and development.

In the operation of the business of the organization he has brought an efficiency worthy of the best traditions of civic service. The records, files and general details of the office lend to his service a high estimate of worth. Mr. Paden has at hand a rich store of information and follows closely the development of better methods of service employed by similar organizations now so necessary to modern business centers. The development of better business; securing for his city every possible industry; anticipating opportnities and working to achieve progress for Cameron, each in turn have had his most ardent support.

His successive re-election to the place he now holds with such distinction is evidence of the unanimous approval of his work.

In the sum total of benefits accruing to the Chamber of Commerce and to our City Mr. Paden's work is an essentially outstanding factor and the Annual Banquet and Membership meeting, together with the report of the accomplishments of the year, is well deserved tribute to your enterprising and efficient Secretary and Manager.—Chamber of Commerce Book.

Revival

Our Revial Meeting begins April 17th. Dr. C. Y. Dossey, one of our State Evangelist, will do the preaching in this meeting. If we have a great meeting with many souls saved and a large number of additions to the church, the members of our church must pray and work toward this end. Let us pledge ourselves to pray for Bro. Dossey before the meeting and during the meeting. Let us pray for our unsaved friends and loved ones. Let us pray that the spirit of complete consecration may be evident in the lives of our entire church membership. As we meet God's conditions He pours out His abundant blessing upon us.—Baptist Messenger.
